

GOVERNMENT RETURNS BLANKET INDICTMENT

Charging Nationwide Conspiracy to Hamper Country

One Hundred and Sixty Six Leaders of the Industrial Workers of the World are Sought by Government Agents—Haywood Among First to be Taken.

Chicago, Sept. 28.—Formal return of a blanket indictment charging a nationwide conspiracy to hamper the government during the war was made today in the United States district court here against 166 leaders of the Industrial Workers of the World.

Arrests speedily followed. Almost before the court proceedings had reached the state of the discharge of the jury deputy marshals were on their way to the local I. W. W. headquarters in automobiles loaned and driven by women and quickly returned to the federal building bringing the indicted men.

In the first hour thirty five men were thus hauled into the marshal's office and later were questioned by men of the bureau of investigation of the department of justice. Among the first to be taken into custody was William D. Haywood, secretary of the national organization of the Industrial Workers of the World who was also questioned Sept. 5 when the headquarters of the I. W. W. in various cities were raided by the government.

An explanatory statement issued by the government attorneys who have directed the investigation of the seditious conspiracy, the crime of which the men named in the indictments are accused said:

"The prosecution is under sections 6, 19, and 37 of the criminal code and under the espionage act. Only leaders in conspiracies or those personally culpable in connection with the preparation of crimes against the United States are included as defendants."

District Attorney Clynne said that stated in a few words, the propaganda of the defendants consists of these assertions:

"We are going to take possession of the industries of this country because we want them."

"Second, because we need them; Third, because we are in this crisis possessed of the power to put it over."

"In addition there is running thru all these endeavors," said Mr. Clynne, "pronounced opposition to the support of the war in which this country is enlisted. One teaching being that whatever can be done to make the power of the enemy greater or our power of resistance less effective is a service to the organization. The investigation and resulting indictments we believe will be entirely satisfactory to the general public of the country when the extent of the information gathered and the thoroughness of the investigation made can be divulged which will be within a few days."

None but members of the I. W. W. were named in the indictments the government attorneys taking pains to specify that no others were touched.

I. W. W. is a Degenerate

District Attorney Clynne under whose direction the work of the grand jury was accomplished was assisted by Judge William C. Pitts, assistant attorney general from Washington, who had general supervision of the inquiry, Frank C. Dailley of Indianapolis and Frank K. Nebeker of Salt Lake City, both assistants to the attorney general.

Commenting on the fact that the indictment was aimed at none but I. W. W. members Judge Pitts gave this definition of the I. W. W.

"The I. W. W. differs from Socialists and from every form of legitimate labor organization," he said. "The I. W. W. is degenerate; its doctrine is treachery built on the teaching of the employment of secret and covert destructive methods intended to wreck the employer and thru destruction of production and transportation disable society and the government itself. The object at this time being to render the enemy stronger and our dear country weak in the resistance of that strength."

When all of the indicted men have been arrested the cases will be called for trial here and as rapidly as the arrests are made the prisoners will be brought before the federal authorities here. The espionage act under which the indictments were found permitting that procedure.

UNARMED AMERICAN SCHOONER SUNK

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—News of the sinking of the unarmed American schooner, Henry Pippitt in the war zone reached the state department today in a consular report. The crew was saved. The Pippitt was of 895 gross tonnage, built at Thomaston, Maine, in 1895. Her home port was Philadelphia.

CALIFORNIA ONLY OASIS

ON COAST

San Francisco, Cal., Sept. 28.—When British Columbia falls into line as "dry" territory at the end of this week, California will be left as the only refuge of the saloon on the Pacific Coast, north of the Mexican boundary. Alaska, Oregon and Washington, with British Columbia added, will form a strong line of defense. But California, altho still without state-wide prohibition, is rapidly becoming "dry" territory. It is said that few of the States which have not enacted prohibition laws have as many saloonless cities as California.

KELLY JURY DISAGREES AFTER DELIBERATION

Minister Will Be Held in Jail Until State Can Proceed to a New Trial.

Red Oak, Ia., Sept. 28.—The Rev. Lynn George J. Kelly whose trial on a charge of complicity in the Villisca axe murders ended today in a disagreement of the jury after 44 hours deliberation, will be taken to the county jail at Logan tomorrow, it was announced tonight and he held until the state can proceed to a new trial.

H. M. Haver, attorney general, before returning to Des Moines tonight announced that the state would not drop the indictment but would insist on another trial.

Twenty two ballots were taken, from first to last the vote being eleven to one for acquittal, it was announced after the jury had been dismissed. T. C. Brown, the dissenting juror said that he held out for a verdict of "not guilty because insane."

WAR NEWS SUMMARIZED

At last accounts Field Marshal Haig was holding and consolidating salient positions won from Germans in Wednesday's battle east of Ypres extension of which would give him a dominating point from which to operate against the Ostend-Lille railroad and also a position flanking both the northern and southern parts of Crown Prince Rupprecht's line.

All the commanding positions taken by the English, Scotch and Australian troops in the latest drive have been firmly held by them, despite numerous furious counterattacks in which the Germans suffered great losses in killed or wounded.

The Berlin official communication reports that east of Ypres British artillery again resumed drum fire, an indication that Haig has in store for the enemy a further relentless attack.

Crown Prince Frederick William continues here and there to strike violently. His latest attempt has been in the forest of the Argonne, where three times he threw troops against the French. As on the Chemin-des-Dames and before Verdun, where similar assaults recently have been made the effort of the Germans was fruitless and brought to them only additional heavy casualties. Comparative quiet prevails on all other battle fronts the Russians have resumed activities in the Caucasus, where at several points, Ottoman forces have been defeated.

BRITISH COLUMBIA TO ENTER "DRY" COLUMN

Heavy Penalties Provided for Breach of All-Embracing Enactment—Law Brought About in Unusual Manner.

Victoria, B. C. Sept. 28.—John Barleycorn is making his farewell appearances in British Columbia, which is to come into the "bone dry" column at midnight tomorrow night by virtue of the new prohibition law. The main provision of the new law is that "no person shall within the province, by himself, his clerk, servant or agent, expose for sale, or directly or indirectly, or upon any pretense, or upon any device sell, or barter, or offer to sell or barter, or consideration of the purchase, or transfer of any property or thing, or for any other consideration, or at the time of the transfer of any property or thing, give to any other person any liquor."

A breach of this all-embracing enactment is punishable with heavy penalties, namely with not less than six months' imprisonment with hard labor for the first offense and from 12 to 21 months' imprisonment for subsequent offenses.

Provision is made for the use of liquor for special purposes. The law has been brought about in a somewhat unusual manner. The question of Prohibition was submitted to the people sometime back, when the British Columbia soldiers in France and England voted, and there was a small majority against bringing the prohibition act into force. A subsequent inquiry evidenced the fact that the soldiers' vote was, thruout, a most irregular affair, and one full of gross breaches of the election law. Among the irregularities, it was discovered that men had voted in their friends as well as in their own names.

The British Columbian Government decided to ignore this manifestly improper vote, and to act on the voting which had taken place in the Providence itself, with the result that the "drys" easily carried the day.

GALLOWS AWAITS DEAF MUTES.

New Haven, Conn., Sept. 28.—What will probably be the first execution of a pair of deaf-mutes in the history of this country will take place at the Connecticut State prison at Wethersfield, one month from today, unless the State pardon board reconsiders its determination not to carry out the death sentence. The prospective victims of the noose are Joseph Castell and Frank Veteri, both of whom are deaf and dumb. The crime for which they are under sentence to pay the death penalty was the murder of Castell's wife in this city on April 2, 1916. Deciding to rid himself of his spouse for personal reasons, Castell arranged to put her out of the way. Veteri, a friend and boarder, kindly consented to aid him in the commission of the crime. Following the murder the two men escaped to New York, where they were arrested a few days later and returned to New Haven for trial.

ROOSEVELT VISITS THE TWIN CITIES

Accorded Demonstration By Cheering Throngs

Colonel Classes LaFollette Among the "Huns" Within Our Gates—Asserts Wisconsin Senator is Most Sinister Enemy of Democracy in This Country.

St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 28.—On the platform of the auditorium where Senator LaFollette last week decried American entry into the war on what he termed a violation of technical rights, Colonel Roosevelt classing the Wisconsin senator among the "huns" within our gates, declared he would like to send LaFollette and his "shadow huns" to Germany as "free gifts to the kaiser." Among the "shadow huns," the colonel included Senator Gronna of North Dakota and Representative Lundeen of Minnesota.

The lateness of Colonel Roosevelt's train in reaching the twin cities and the demonstration accorded him both in Minneapolis and St. Paul delayed his address but the big hall was full with many of the audience standing or kneeling in the aisles when he arrived.

Introduced by C. R. Robertson, president of the Labor Loyal Legion of Minneapolis, Colonel Roosevelt declared at the outset that the public man who did not consider first of all the real and permanent welfare of the workingman was no friend of Democracy. He is not true to the United States either if he misleads the working men of what is to their permanent interests, he added and then said:

"The most sinister enemy of Democracy in the United States is Senator LaFollette."

The colonel had been given a transcript of Senator LaFollette's speech before the producers and consumers conference held here last week under the auspices of the Non-Partisan League.

"I have not had time to read it all," he said, "but I have already found two or three 'gems.'"

Knows It to be a Falsehood. "Senator LaFollette's assertion that America's participation in the war was due to American citizens being passengers on a ship loaded with munitions for Great Britain was declared by the colonel to be a falsehood and 'he knows it is a falsehood.'"

Senator LaFollette emphasized the sinking of the Lusitania with its fifty babies under one year old, its 11 babies under two years and its 100 Americans," the colonel went on. "He said nothing about the sinking of the hospital ship Sussex and the 'technical right' of the doctors and red cross nurses who sank with her to be on board."

"I abhor Germany. I abhor the hun without our gates but more I abhor the hun within our gates and I say that any man who excuses and condones such infamy, and his shadow huns, Gronna and Lundeen do not represent the American people. They are on a level with Vallandigham, who Lincoln sent beyond the confederate lines. I wish I could send them to Germany as a free gift to the kaiser. LaFollette is out of place in the senate."

"Semmes, commander of the Alabama never even in the bitterest time of the Civil War, sank a ship without providing for saving the lives of its passengers. Once, having captured a prize, he was about to land the passengers in Jamaica Bay, learning that there was an epidemic of yellow fever there, turned the prize loose rather than expose women and children to that disease. Neither England, France, Spain nor the United States thru the orders of their governments in the last 250 years have done the infamous act of sinking a ship without providing for the safety of the people aboard it."

Turning again to the shipment of munitions, a point dwelt on by Senator LaFollette, Colonel Roosevelt said it was the senator's business to know what were the treaty rights of Americans. He declared that it was thru Germany's insistence that The Hague agreement sanctioned the shipment of munitions and that at that time Germany was shipping arms to the Boers and later shipped them to Turkey and some of the Balkan states.

Pays Respects to Baer.

The colonel also paid his respects to Congressman Baer of North Dakota the non-partisan party's representative in congress. On June 22 Congressman Baer said that this was "no time to make Americanism an issue," said the colonel. "That statement would be all right in the German reichstag but a man who thinks and speaks that way ought not to be admitted to congress. If this is not the time to make Americanism an issue there is no time."

Colonel Roosevelt turned his attention also to the non-partisan league. He said that when it was first organized he had real sympathy with its aims and "some of" its methods. But now, he added, it was a real grief to him to find that some of its members cheered the sentiments of LaFollette and that its methods seemed to be working toward the erection of a "machine."

The colonel congratulated the big crowd on the enthusiasm it showed. "But don't let it evaporate," he said. "It is fine merely cheer and carry flags but you must add words and deeds. This is an exclusive war so far as I am concerned, but I have four sons in it. I must speak because I am not given the privilege of acting. We must back the government in its prosecution of the war and spur it on to greater activities. We must help the Red Cross and kindred organizations."

TRAIN KILLS THREE AT GRADE CROSSING

Chicago & Northwestern Train Hits Automobile Near Stanwood, Iowa.

Stanwood, Ia., Sept. 28.—Three persons were instantly killed when a Chicago & Northwestern train hit an automobile at a grade crossing here at three o'clock this afternoon. The dead are:

Scott Hamilton, aged 63, Stanwood.
Miss Florence Gibson, aged 35, Clinton.
Miss Grace Read, aged 23, Clinton.

The three were on their way back to Clinton after attending a convention of the United Brethren church here. The train which struck the automobile stopped at the rear of the Hamilton home and the porter ran to the rear door and asked Mrs. Hamilton for some sheets saying that a terrible accident had happened. A few minutes later Mrs. Hamilton found that her husband and the two young women one her niece and the other her cousin, had been killed. The accident occurred just two blocks from the crossing where four persons were killed in a similar accident a year ago.

HEAD-ON COLLISION KILLS TWENTY-SEVEN

Fifty Others Injured in Railroad Smash-up in Oklahoma

St. Louis and San Francisco Passenger Train Crashes Into Empty Troop Train—Only Seven of the Killed Were White.

Tulsa, Okla., Sept. 28.—Twenty-seven persons were killed and injured, half of them seriously in a head-on collision one mile southwest of Kellyville, late today between St. Louis and San Francisco passenger train No. 7 and an empty troop train coming east.

It was impossible to learn the names of all the dead tonight but it is known that only seven were white. As the bodies were rushed away to morgues at Bristow and Sapulpa.

F. N. Hutchinson, of Tulsa, an employee of the Pioneer Telephone company is among the list of identified victims. John Crowmover of Shamrock, Okla., a former deputy sheriff of Creek county is the other white man known to have been killed. Frisco officials declined to give out any information as to the extent of the disaster saying they did not know how many were killed or injured. The collision occurred just after the passenger train crossed the bridge over Pole Cat creek. The crews of both engines jumped, saving their lives but were severely injured.

The passenger train was in charge of Engineer Rule of Sapulpa, who was able to walk to his home in that city after he had jumped from his engine. M. N. Catterton, his fireman, also of Sapulpa, was brought to a hospital in this city with the wounded passengers.

The troop train was running in two sections and the first had passed the passenger just out of Kellyville. Engineer Rule, not knowing there was another section behind, took the main track and crossed the river.

All the dead were taken to Bristow and Sapulpa. Information from there says that the victims number seven white men, fourteen negro men, three negro women and three Indians.

FIRST CAR OF 1917 CORN ARRIVES IN PEORIA

PEORIA, Sept. 28.—The first car of corn of the 1917 crop reached the Peoria board of trade today from Mississippi and was bought by the Distillers' Securities' company for use at the Globe Branch in Pekin, at $1.65 a bushel. It graded sample tested 19.2 and was fairly good. This is the earliest in many years that new corn has reached the board.

NORTHWESTERN STUDENTS SEARCH FOR PLAYER.

Chicago, Sept. 28.—Students at Northwestern University today began a search for Jack Hutch, a promising half back on last year's football squad who has been missing from the university since Sept. 18. Hutch who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George P. Hutch of Marlborough, Mass., arrived at the university Sept. 1, to begin working for this year's team. On Sept. 18, he disappeared. He had not registered at the university.

LOANS MAN MURDERED.

Fort Worth, Texas, Sept. 28.—Edward Parsley, police commissioner was shot and killed late today in his private office in the city hall by J. K. Yates, former police inspector who was shot to death by a group of officers who fired thru a door after he had barricaded himself in the commissioner's office.

ADMINISTRATORS NAMED

greater activities. We must help the Red Cross and kindred organizations. "We must buy liberty bonds. They are the safest investment unless we should all get 'busted' and in that case no one would care about his money."

HURRICANE DOES LITTLE DAMAGE

Pensacola Only City Now Cut Off from Communication

Mobile, Gulfport, Biloxi, Pass Christian and Other Southern Towns Report no Loss of Life and Comparatively Small Property Damage.

BULLETIN.

A GULF PORT, Sept. 28.—A big British steamer which left this port Saturday is lying helpless three hundred miles off shore after being battered for many hours by the tropical hurricane which struck the east gulf coast Thursday according to a wireless message received here today. Agents of the ship declined to give out the nature of the trouble but it is understood the vessel's propeller shaft was broken.

New Orleans, La., Sept. 28.—Altho the wind at places attained a velocity as high as 100 miles an hour the hurricane swept across the gulf coast from the Mississippi river to the west coast of Florida escaped serious damage today unless there was great loss at Pensacola, the only city which tonight was cut off from communication. For hours this afternoon and tonight the entire coast was isolated, all telegraph and telephone wires being down and great anxiety was felt fears being entertained that the hurricane might exact such a toll as that of last year when many lives were lost and several million dollars worth of property destroyed. With communication restored tonight to Mobile, Gulfport, Biloxi, Pass Christian, Bay St. Louis, Long Beach and other towns there were no reports of loss of life and the property loss apparently was comparatively small. Railroad bridges along the gulf were damaged and at Mobile and other cities some buildings were unroofed. Ample warning of the hurricane's approach had been given to the most remote section and to this fact is attributed the saving of many lives. At the more exposed places, people sought refuge inland, while shipping moved to safer moorings.

The slight damage done along the coast was attributed to the fact that the wind shifted from the northeast to the north blowing the water from the shore and averting the beach wash which heretofore has caused great damage to buildings along the beaches.

New Orleans felt only the weaker segment of the hurricane and practically no damage was done here. The maximum velocity of the wind here, the local forecast announced tonight was 36 miles and this was diminishing tonight. The barometer was rising after reaching a minimum reading of 29.61.

Little Property Damage.

Pass Christian, Miss., Sept. 28.—Gulfport, Biloxi, Bay St. Louis, Long Beach and other points along the coast came thru today's tropical hurricane with virtually little property damage. So far as reported there was no loss of life.

No Loss of Life Reported.

Mobile, Ala., Sept. 28.—Altho the wind here at times today attained a velocity of 96 miles an hour, property damage was slight and there was no loss of life in this section, so far as reported last tonight.

Several Vessels Sunk.

Havana, Sept. 28.—One steamer and several sailing vessels were sunk, numerous houses were razed and great damage done to growing crops and fruits by the West Indian hurricane, which struck the Isle of Pines Wednesday, according to dispatches tonight.

Advices from Batabano, on the mainland, say it is believed many perished in the islands, altho no definite information has been received here.

Diminishing in Intensity.

Washington, Sept. 28.—The tropical hurricane which moved up from the Gulf of Mexico today to the mainland apparently was central tonight in the vicinity of Mobile and Pensacola, Fla., the weather bureau announced and is moving northeast. It was expected soon to reach the South Atlantic coast but in diminishing intensity.

NORTHWEST INTERCOLLEGIATE FOOTBALL

Spokane, Wash. Sept. 28.—Graduate managers of the Pacific Northwest Intercollegiate Conference met here today to discuss plans for the coming football season and to decide whether or not the freshmen rule should be kept in force. There appears to be a strong sentiment in favor of suspending the rule for this season at least owing to the fact that so many of the upper classmen in the conference colleges have entered the military service.

STREET PAVING WORK.

The work of laying the new pavement on North Sandy street is to begin in the near future and in preparation for the work the old brick pavement is now being removed. John E. Bretz, who has the contract for the paving, has had a large concrete mixer brought to the city, and the work will be pushed as rapidly as possible. The work of laying the asphalt on Prairie street will be commenced within a few days, as the concrete has been in place the required length of time.

Derrill S. Loomis of Elmhurst is one of the little lads who has been enrolled at the State School for the Deaf. He is a great grandson of Prof. Loomis who years ago was a member of the faculty of the School for the Blind. His grandfather was a classmate of Supt. Gillett at Illinois college.

MANY CANDIDATES FOR COMMISSIONS DROPPED

FORT SHERIDAN, Ill., Sept. 28.—During the five weeks that the second reserve officers' training camp has been in progress 105 candidates for commissions have been dropped from the rolls. About 75 of these were disqualified because of physical defects developed by the training, some voluntarily resigned and twenty were discharged for conscientious reasons. The number dropped is smaller than during the first five weeks of the first camp. The candidates will be given their first brigade review tomorrow morning by Colonel James A. Ryan, post commander.

GREAT BRITAIN SEEKS TO SOLVE SUGAR PROBLEM

Plan Provides for Sugar Cards, The System Already Adopted by The Continental Countries for Control of Various Foodstuffs—People Are Shown Every Consideration.

London, Sept. 28.—While the Government at Washington has been carrying to a successful conclusion its negotiations with the American sugar producers for an agreement to fix a stable retail price for their commodity during the war, Great Britain has been working on a solution of the sugar problem along different lines. The British plan provides for sugar cards, under the same system already adopted by the Continental countries for the control of various foodstuffs, and which will entitle each person in the United Kingdom to a fixed amount of sugar each week.

England's first experience with the card system, and the distribution of the cards which work will be completed by the Food Controller tomorrow, has attracted no end of public attention and comment.

Householders Cautioned.

By tomorrow night it is expected that the application forms will have been left at every house in the country. Householders have been cautioned by the newspapers not to allow the precious document to suffer the fate of another scrap of paper, for fear that such an act might be said to be a long war between said householder and a worthy dignitary possessing the sweet-sounding title of Food Commissioner.

The Food Controller is showing the people every consideration. He is giving them exactly one week in which to study the beauties of the application form. By the end of next week it must be returned to the proper authorities.

But when it returns it must be a very different document from the form which has been left at the householder's door the past week by the postman or postwoman. It must contain the householder's family history, his reasons for being on earth, out of the army, and in need of sugar. And the family records set down must be as scrupulously correct as those of the family bible.

It will be of no use for the householder to try to persuade the authorities that he is bringing up a large family if the total of his responsibilities is a wife. It will not do for him to declare that he is the sole support of an aged grandmother, for if he does the pension officer is likely to be called in to verify the statement. Nor will it avail him to invent names for half a dozen children who don't exist in the hope that by doing so he will get twice as much sugar. In making false statements he is more than likely to get no sugar at all, except what the prison authorities may hand to him in his cell once a day.

Is Not Compulsory.

But, above all, the householder or head of family is cautioned not to forget to fill in the application form. The Food Controller very considerably points out that it is not compulsory for anyone to complete the form but on the other hand, if he doesn't do so, the Food Controller won't guarantee him even half an ounce of sugar per month. So, it is evidently up to every Britisher possessing a sweet tooth to set an eventing aside sometime within the next few days to deal with the wonderful, all-essential sugar application. It is safe to assume that very few persons will elect to do without sugar, notwithstanding the red-tape that it may be necessary to untangle in order to get it. So in virtually every home thruout the land the spectacle will be presented of the head of the family gathering his dependents around him, armed with birth certificates, fountain pens, and clear consciences, prepared to swear that to the best of his knowledge and belief the form is correctly filled in.

When the application form is completed it must be mailed to the local authorities in charge of the distribution in the course of the next few weeks, unless the Kaiser cries "Kamerad", in the meantime or the Government changes its mind and invents some other new scheme, a sugar card emblazoned in letters of black ink, bound in red tape, and bearing the seal of authority will be deposited in the householder's letter-box. In a way this card will be the most valuable document it has ever been the Britisher's privilege to handle, for it will bring a touch of sweetness into his life.

STAR PLAYER INJURED

Chicago, Sept. 28.—Jack Ullrich, Northwestern University's stellar guard, dislocated his knee cap this afternoon in football scrimmage with freshmen team and will be out of the game for some time.

Bloomington, Ill., Sept. 28.—The northern Illinois conference of the United Brethren church today voted to shoulder the burden of starting a new church of that denomination in Peoria.

DEBATE CULMINATES IN PHYSICAL ENCOUNTER

Representatives Norton and Hefflin are the Belligerents

Report from Rules Committee that It Had Decided not to Act on Any of the Resolutions for an Inquiry Precipitates Trouble.

Washington, Sept. 28.—Hot debate, culminating in a physical encounter between Representatives Hefflin of Alabama and Norton of North Dakota was precipitated in the house today by a report from the rules committee that it had decided not to act on any of the various resolutions for an inquiry into whether members of congress have been influenced by German money. At adjournment tonight the two belligerents were clamoring for an opportunity to address the house and other members who want an inquiry were striving to have one ordered in spite of the committee's report. Discussion will be resumed tomorrow with demands from both sides of the house for investigation of Mr. Hefflin's charge that several members have not acted loyally. Chairman Poin explained in submitting the rules committee report that an inquiry would interfere with swiftness of investigation of the use of German money, now being made by the department of justice. He said Representative Hefflin had not reflected on the integrity of any member of the house and had spoken in the heat of debate.

Some loud groans greeted the latter statement. Representative Britten of Illinois who had been criticized by Mr. Hefflin for introducing a measure to exempt German Americans from military service shouted that a resolution to expel Hefflin should be considered immediately.

In the midst of the storm Representative Stearnson of Minnesota switched the discussion to other business and thenceforth save for the few minutes in which Hefflin and Norton had their near-fight the subject was not broached until just before adjournment.

Clash Comes Most Unexpectedly.

The clash started during a lull in the proceedings after Norton had been refused time to reply to reports that Hefflin had said he was disloyal. It came most unexpectedly to the fifty or more members present.

After failing to get the floor, Norton went thru the Republican side to the back of the house and walked down the Democratic side until he faced Hefflin who was seated at a table writing. Neither man greeted the other, but after gazing steadily at Hefflin for a moment Norton spoke:

"Did you ever say at anytime, or give out any report to any one that I was disloyal in this war?" he asked.

"No, I did not," Hefflin replied.

There was a moment's silence during which Norton continued to glare at Hefflin, who still was seated.

"Go back to your own side," said the Alabama member.

"I'll go back when I get ready," Norton responded.

Then Hefflin rose, grasped Norton by the coat lapels and began backing him toward a row of seats. Norton, the lighter of the two by fifty pounds came back with a vigorous punch which drove the Alabama's back against seats across the aisle. A moment later an assistant sergeant-at-arms and several members pulled the men apart, while Sergeant-Arms Gordon hurried down the aisle to display his massive mace, the historic symbol of authority, the mere lifting of which is supposed to reduce to fear and quiet the obstreperous.

Members flocked from both sides of the house and poured out of the cloak rooms toward the scene of action, many climbing over benches to get a better view. Some laughingly urged that the combat be permitted to continue.

Representative Johnson of Kentucky in the chair pounded frantically with his gavel and shouted for order.

Representative Hefflin began to wave back Republicans, who

CHILDREN IN WAR TIME.

How other countries provide from Government funds for the wives and children of their soldiers in active service, while the United States makes no such allowances is described in the latest report by the Children's Bureau of the U. S. Department of Labor.

Separation allowances are granted not only in European countries where the pay of the private soldier of the lowest rank runs from 39 cents to $7.30 a month, but in Canada and Australia which pay him $33 and $43.30 while he is engaged in foreign service. In addition to the soldier's pay the wife and children of the Canadian soldier receive from the Government $20 a month, and the allowance to the family of the Australian soldier varies according to the number of children up to a maximum of nearly $30 a month.

The pensions allowed by law to wives and children of soldiers killed in service are shown to be considerably higher also in Great Britain and the British dominions than in the United States. And the report describes the various ways in which foreign Governments are making an effort to meet the special needs of individual families.

In presenting this report to the Secretary of Labor, the chief of the Children's Bureau speaks of the general study of child welfare in the warring countries which is being conducted by the Children's Bureau and says:

"The relation of all these questions of child welfare to the living conditions behind the lines is clear. It is also plain that the living conditions in large measure depend upon the provisions made by the respective Governments for soldiers and their dependents. And since the withdrawal of men from the ordinary walks of life to form a large army must create similar problems here, the question of what countries offer important suggestions for a system of soldiers' compensation in this country becomes at once basic to the consideration of child welfare in war time.

"The material contained in the accompanying report, together with the earlier report upon the Care of Dependents of Enlisted Men in Canada, has been already utilized in drafting a proposed measure for soldiers' compensation in the United States."

States by the Hon. Julian W. Mack, chairman of a special committee appointed by the committee on labor of the Council of National Defense for that purpose."

THE DUTIES OF WOMEN.

Those who heard Miss Harriett Vittum in public addresses in Jacksonville yesterday were of one mind that she presented the most impressive picture of the war that has been seen in Jacksonville. There is no florid oratory about Miss Vittum's style of speaking. She is an eloquent woman with a message and she tells it in a way to reach the heart and the intellect.

If there were people in the audiences who heard her yesterday who had thought little of the meaning of this war, both for the present and future, certainly they "saw the light." The speaker told some harrowing details of European warfare but she made it apparent that the stories were not told simply to shock the sensibilities of her hearers but that those details might carry with them an appeal which will bring about support to the American soldiers in this time of great need.

Miss Vittum glorifies the work of the Red Cross. She urges women who are aiding that work not to grow slack, for there is no possibility that enough bandages, enough knitted garments—may be made to meet the need. And while she glorifies the Red Cross work, she points out in a convincing way that activities along other lines must be kept up with vigor. It will not do for men or women to fail to support other good movements simply because they are working for the Red Cross. Based on the experience of the allied nations, we will have greater need than ever before for our hospitals. The problems of child welfare will press for solution as never before. Because of the high cost of living there will be more work for our associated charities than has been true in years gone by. And so the times cry out for faithful-hearted men and women who recognize their full duty to their fellow beings. Men are going to the front to give their all to this great cause, and when we consider this great sacrifice anything that we who stay at home can do, passes into mere insignificance.

One of the most potent statements that Miss Vittum made was with reference to the necessity for good cheer. She pointed out that it will be the duty of women in the dark hours to come to hide their grief. This is one of the ways in which they can materially help. The women of England, France and Belgium have found this out and today you can pass thru any of these countries where grim sorrow has been stalking about so ruthlessly, and you will find no women with tear-stained faces. Strength has been given them to meet the terrors of the days. They keep the tears for the privacy of their homes and ever turn—if not smiling, not hopeless—faces to the world. This is one of the things that American women must learn, and indeed Miss Vittum pointed forcefully to the patriotic pathway which the women of America must follow. She made the duty plain—made it clear, than it has been understood before in Jacksonville, thru addresses delivered or published.

SWEDEN IN THE LIMELIGHT.

Sweden has a population of 5,680,000.

The State Religion of Sweden is Lutheran.

Sweden's greatest article of export is timber.

Elementary education in Sweden is compulsory, free and well organized.

The last census gave Stockholm, the Swedish capital, a population of 382,985.

Sweden has 9,000 miles of railway, of which about one-third belong to the state.

Sweden adopted a system of universal suffrage and proportional representation in 1909.

The total war strength of Europe is estimated at 600,000 men, with half a million more unorganized.

Sweden has an area of 172,876 square miles, which is equal to a little more than twice the area of Minnesota.

Nearly 50 per cent of Sweden is woodland, there being about 900 acres of forest for every hundred inhabitants.

One of Sweden's most valuable assets is her iron mines, from which some of the finest steel in the world is produced.

Queen Victoria of Sweden is a daughter of the late Grand Duke of Baden, granddaughter of the late Emperor of Germany and full cousin of the present kaiser.

King Gustav of Sweden is directly descended from that Marshal Bernadotte who, commencing his career by carrying a musket for the great Napoleon, ended by receiving the kingdom of Sweden.

The ancient inhabitants of Sweden were Finns, now the people of Finland, who retired to the north on the appearance of the Scandinavians or Goths, who have ever since been masters of Sweden.

By the union of Calmar, in 1397, Sweden became a province of Denmark, and was not wholly rescued from this subjection till 1521, when Gustavus Vasa recovered the kingdom from the Danish yoke.

Stockholm, the capital of Sweden, is known the world over for its wonderfully beautiful situation on the islands and the shores of Lake Maelar, just where this body of water finds its exit into the Baltic.

There is probably no country in the world, unless it be America, where so much attention is given to the education of the masses as in Sweden. The attendance at the "Folkhögskola", or public schools, may show a comparatively small per cent of attendance as regards population but this is due to the fact that everybody who can afford it educates his children privately.

AGED COLORED WOMAN HAD EVENTFUL LIFE

MRS. ALCINDA BRYANT LIVED HERE OVER HALF CENTURY

Born in Slavery Ninety Three Years Ago—Faithfulness to "White Owner" Won His Abiding Regard—Home Place of Religious Service Before Churches Were Established.

Thursday saw the passing of one of Jacksonville's oldest and most respected colored citizens. Mrs. Alcinda Bryant, who passed away at the age of 93 years at her home on South Clay avenue. She had been a resident of this city since shortly after the Civil War and was well and favorably known to a host of people in this vicinity.

Mrs. Bryant was born in the state of Virginia in the year 1824, her parents being held in the bonds of slavery by prominent and rich white people of that section of the country. When still a very small girl she was brought west to Paris, Mo., by slave traders who expected to sell her into the south. When the town of Paris was reached these traders threw the girl into jail until they could arrange to dispose of her and while she was thus confined a white man named Delaney happened along and seeing the little colored girl agreed to buy her. Her purchaser proved in after years to be one of the kindest and most considerate of masters. He took her to Hannibal, where he lived and this was her home for many years, until after the close of the Civil war.

A Help During War Times

During the war and for years before, Alcinda Delaney as she was known, aided with the housework, taking care of the children of William Delaney and the cooking for the family. It is said that during the terrible days of the civil strife, when money was so scarce and hard to get, that Alcinda carried several hundred dollars belonging to her master in a belt around her waist under her dress. Many times the Delaney home was raided but the soldiers never thought of searching the colored women for money.

At the close of the war Alcinda married Herod Bryant and they left the Delaney homestead at Hannibal, which had been her happy home for so many years and came to New Berlin, Ill. They also lived a short time near Alexander before finally locating in Jacksonville. At that time Jacksonville was a very small community and with money furnished by Mr. Delaney a little lot was purchased at what is now 433 South Clay Avenue. On this spot a little one room cabin was built on the banks of the brook and the Bryant family home was established. Mr. and Mrs. Bryant had several children but only one daughter, Mrs. Nellie Robertson of Chicago survives.

Former Master Rebuilt Home

After a number of years Delaney who had prospered in the business in Hannibal came to this city to see his former slave and seeing the little cabin on the banks of the brook and noticing that it was in need of repairs, ordered a mason to build a suitable foundation for the house and had carpenters add another room to it. Delaney also paid for the paving assessment and paid for laying the walk in front of the residence. He was always aiding Mrs. Bryant in some way, and almost every month sent her a check to cover her living expenses. Every Christmas and Thanksgiving time Mrs. Bryant would look for a check from Mr. Delaney and seldom was she disappointed. It is rightly stated that there were few slave owners of the William Delaney type. During later years her son-in-law William Robinson who lived at the Bryant home helped her a great deal and always saw to it that she did not lack for comforts.

Aided on Establishing Church

During the life of Mrs. Bryant her home was always looked upon by upright colored people as a place where they could get shelter or a meal or any of the little comforts of life which Mrs. Bryant had to offer. The latch string at her home was always on the outside. For many years before there was a church established in this city for colored people prayer meetings and church services were held at the Bryant home. Her house and pocket book were always open to the needy. When Rev. E. M. Harlis came to this city a number of years ago, he went to see Mrs. Bryant in regard to establishing a place of worship for the colored people in Jacksonville. Mrs. Bryant, with whom he had been acquainted for a number of years, told him at that time that if he wanted to start a church here that he would have to stay here and attend to it and see that it was maintained. Rev. Harlis established the Second Christian Church in this city and made his home at the Bryant residence for many years and was treated as one of the family.

Several years ago Mrs. Bryant suffered a fall in which three ribs were broken, this injury together with old age superinduced a stroke of apoplexy from which she never recovered. Although the last few years of her life was spent in an invalid condition she was always cheerful and complained as little as possible of her sufferings. She was well thought of and respected both by the colored people whom she always sought to aid and also by her white friends.

MRS. LOUISA BURNS' LONG LIFE CLOSED FRIDAY

Deceased Had Wide Influence Altho An Invalid for Many Years—Came From Scotland When a Child—Funeral Sunday.

At a few minutes past 6 o'clock Friday evening Mrs. Louisa H. Burns passed away at her home on South Church street. Mrs. Burns' maiden name was William and Helen Gibson and was born in Edinburgh, Scotland. As a child she came with her parents to the United States, the family settling first in New York. After a residence of a few years there the home was established in Ohio. It was at Cincinnati that the deceased became the wife of John Burns. One child, Mary Burns, was born to them and when this child was but a few months old the father died. Mrs. Burns continued to make Cincinnati her home for some years and 22 years ago they came to Jacksonville, as they had relatives here.

As Mrs. Burns was of Scotch ancestry she naturally in her earlier years was a member of the Presbyterian church. After coming to Jacksonville she became identified with the Christian church and thru a long period of years was very active in the work of that church. She was not only faithful in attendance at the various church services, but was identified with various church societies. The same faithfulness which characterized her every day life was prominent in her church work, and every pastor of the church, so long as good health was given her, found in her an always loyal helper.

It was more than thirteen years ago that Mrs. Burns health began to fail and within a few months she was made an invalid. The every effort was made to restore her broken strength, she continued to fail and for four years has been confined to her bed. Possibly none of the "shut-ins" in Jacksonville was better known than Mrs. Burns, for from the sick room there radiated an influence which came to touch many lives and hearts. Altho her sufferings were intense at times, it is recorded that no word of complaint ever escaped her lips. With her Scotch strength of character there was combined a beauty and sweetness of spirit which is rare indeed.

Altho the final years of Mrs. Burns' life were spent in weakness and in home confinement, she was able to look from the window of her bedroom out upon the world across a garden of flowers. She had a spirit of optimism. She saw only that which was beautiful in the world only that which was admirable in people. Thus the virtues of her friends were exalted and their faults obscured. Tho her weakness increased with the years the strength of her influence grew, and many are those who hold her example in reverence today and hope that it may be given to them to grow in grace even as it was given to her.

Thru the long period of her sickness she has had the devoted care of her only daughter, Miss Mary Burns. The daughter has lived for the mother and has given unstintingly of heart and strength. Mrs. Burns is survived by her nieces, Mrs. Herbert J. Henderson and Miss Mary Cross.

As mentioned, Mrs. Burns has been ill thru a period of years but it was last Tuesday that her condition became critical and the end of her remarkable life came Friday evening.

Funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in charge of the Rev. M. L. Ponitius.

WOMEN URGED TO PLAY FULL PART DURING WAR

MISS VITUM IN STRONG ADDRESS POINTS PATHWAY OF DUTY.

Local Audiences Thoroughly Impressed That Days Demand Patriotism of Hands and Hearts—Must Profit By Mistakes of Allies—Charities at Home Cannot Be Forgotten.

Jacksonville people had the opportunity of hearing addresses yesterday afternoon and evening by Miss Harriet Vittum of Chicago, representative of the national council of defense. Miss Vittum is now engaged in directing the organization work for the registration of women in connection with war activities.

Those who heard Miss Vittum either afternoon or evening came away with a more thorough understanding of war conditions than they had had before and, unless they were dead to patriotic feeling, with a firmer resolve to take some part in war relief work.

Miss Vittum made brief addresses during the day at Illinois college, Illinois Woman's college, Routh College and the Jacksonville high school.

At the afternoon meeting at the library, which was designed particularly for women, organization of the Morgan county unit of the Illinois division of the woman's committee of national defense was effected. Officers were elected and the work of securing a wide membership will be pushed forward vigorously. Last night the library auditorium was crowded and the audience heard Miss Vittum with deepest interest. Dr. Josephine Milligan presided and said that the first to be heard by the organization effected in the afternoon. She then told briefly of the remarkable work that Miss Vittum is doing as a representative of the council of defense. A few sentences from the remarkably forceful address given by Miss Vittum are presented:

Women Must Aid.

"When President Wilson declared war he called on the people of the land to make the world safe for democracy. He called not alone on the men but the women as well. Accordingly he introduced in congress a bill creating the committee of national defense, and that committee we represent tonight. We hope to have a unit in every part of the land. Governor Lowden wisely chose Mrs. Joseph T. Bowen of Chicago to head the organization and now we want all to join; the societies, the churches, the clubs and every element to aid in this great work. Our men have gone and will go to the trenches and it is for the women to do their part in the trenches at home.

"We are asked to help finance the war which must be costly; we should use all possible means to buy liberty bonds. One poor wash woman in Chicago went to the bank with $37 to buy a liberty bond for she wanted to do her part. Registration is all important. This is the first time such a request has been made of women and we hope to register at least 90 per cent of the women of the state. Each woman is asked to do only what she can and almost every one can do something. One woman with little children teaches telegraphy at night. In Maryland, a large canning factory was found short of help with a large crop of vegetables. The older women went into the homes and liberated the younger who went into the factory and did the work. Some object to paying a registration fee because the men pay nothing, but the men give their life blood for the cause.

Conserving Food.

"Food production and conservation are all important. We shall be called on largely to feed the allies and the neutral lands. We must cultivate as never before, but that is not all. Poor ignorant women must be taught how better to buy and to cook. Not long since I received from a woman a check for $100, which she said represented the savings from her table for a comparatively short time. We should

LOCAL Y. M. C. A. GYMNASIUM SCHEDULE ANNOUNCED FOR COMING WINTER MONTHS

The real work of the year will open at the local "Y" next Monday when classes in gymnasium work will be started. The new physical director, Mr. A. R. Weddel, is on the job and already has become popular with the boys and all whom he has met. The outlook for the institution is very good this fall. study the bulletin issued by the state university on corn and its uses and so learn to use more of that grain for food. Especially are we asked to conserve the supply of wheat, fats and sugar, all so badly needed by the allies. Oct 21 to 27 we shall circulate the petition for more wheatless, meatless and sugarless days to aid in the great work.

"We must save in fuel. Hospitals and homes in France are cheerless owing to the high price and scarcity of fuel coal, selling as high as $70 a ton. We must send warm clothing and fuel as far as we can. Think of wounded men shivering in chilly hospitals with insufficient bed clothes.

The Duty of Cheerfulness.

"Then we must conserve our good cheer even though hearts are breaking. In Canada they have a law to this effect and we could practice it here. Smile even if the heart be breaking. Do not dress in black for departed friends. The soldiers in France have a hard time to leave as they see the long rows of women in black waiting to see them off. A lady of rank in England was to give a lawn party when she heard the news of the death of her daughter's husband, but she and the daughter appeared smiling at the event though their hearts were weeping."

"Especially must we be careful to avoid the mistakes of England in using children and women in munition factories and all laborers in long hours. It doesn't pay. That is one secret of Germany's success; she has carefully conserved the strength of her people. We must train our women to do every kind of work at all possible for them.

"The atrocities of the Germans are unspeakable. I know of many blood curdling instances and it is such a cruel nation for government we are called on to fight and conquer. We have unquestioned evidence of this.

The Charities at Home.

"Then too we must not at all forget our home charities. Our own poor are to be aided as usual and assisted in every way possible. We must not have insufficiently fed and clothed people if we would win. All must be strong and able and the families must have attention. We must unite in keeping our men clean and free from disease. The inroads in the ranks of the allies from these causes are great.

"So with a united front and one great common purpose may we do our part in the mighty conflict for universal freedom and democracy."

Brief remarks were made by Dr. Harker, Dr. Rammelkamp and H. H. Bancroft. All spoke in high praise of the address and gave valuable suggestions for the conduct of all with reference to the great conflict now in progress.

BANKERS PREPARE FOR LIBERTY LOAN WORK.

Announcement was made yesterday that Charles A. Johnson has been made a member of the executive committee of the federal reserve bank board of the 8th district, with jurisdiction over Morgan and Scott counties. M. F. Dunlap has been designated chairman for Morgan county. Both of these appointments relate particularly to the liberty loan campaign which is soon to be launched. The 8th federal bank district has been subdivided and the 44 counties of Illinois which are a part of the district will be organized under the direction of E. E. Crabtree.

Mr. Crabtree will go to St. Louis Monday to begin active work in the liberty loan campaign. Mrs. Clark Green will accompany him to serve as secretary. All of the bankers named who are entering upon this work are doing so with the knowledge that a considerable sacrifice of time will be necessary, and they are therefore simply answering the call of duty.

SUIT FOR DIVORCE.

Mrs. Roberta Mikesell by her attorney W. N. Hairgrove has filed suit for divorce from her husband, William Mikesell. They were married in September, 1911 and lived together until recently. Non-support and cruelty are alleged.

MEN AT CAMP TAYLOR BUSY WITH DRILLS

Took Initial Hike Monday and Now Receive Daily Instruction From Capt. Cline—Nicely Located But Anxious for Letters From Home.

William Eads writing from Camp Taylor to the Journal says all of the Morgan county soldiers there are well located and busy at their drill work.

Camp Taylor, Ky., Sept. 25, 1917.

Morgan county's second contingent for the national army consisting of 48 men, have been assigned to Ambulance Company No. 4, under command of Capt. Kline, and took their first hike this morning.

The men were taken out by Sergeant Myers, who is teaching the men the initial steps in drilling and went about three miles. They were put thru some drilling on their return setting up exercises and more cards giving information as to their civilian life, were allowed to rest until after mess when they were put thru setting exercises and more drilling. After a thirty minute rest the men were given some preliminary instruction by Captain Cline.

Morgan County's forty-eight arrived at Camp Taylor Sunday morning after an uneventful, but rather tiresome trip. Supper was waiting at East St. Louis, arrangements having been made before the meal before we started. W. T. Long, traveling passenger agent of the L. & N. railroad accompanied the men from Jacksonville to East St. Louis and William Younker of Springfield, Ill., district passenger agent of the Chicago & Alton, boarded the train at Alton. These men and S. J. Hess, agent for the L. & N. at East St. Louis, who met the train at his station, were of valuable assistance in making the transfer to the Louisville and Nashville road.

The train did not reach Louisville until 8:45 o'clock Sunday morning and the men's special car did not arrive at Camp Taylor until about 10 o'clock. Two officers met the contingent at the camp station and escorted the men to the Illinois receiving station. There they were assigned to Sanitary Train No. 309 and were taken to temporary quarters in the barracks next to that in which the first six men from Morgan county are stationed. After mess Sunday noon the roll was called and each man was asked what his occupation was in civil life.

Monday morning the men were examined and vaccinated and none of them have been notified that they did not pass. They were given setting up exercises Monday afternoon.

All of the men are in good health with the exception of William Loneragan of Murrayville who has had a boil under his chin and has had to have it dressed at least once a day. The men have been joking him about being the first National army man from Morgan county to be wounded in the war, as the and-

Will Diamonds Go Higher?

EXPERTS—men whose life-work is the buying and selling of diamonds — unanimously answer, YES.

Very few of the South African mines are now being worked. The supply of diamonds on hand is diminishing. Labor costs are higher. War insurance and export duties from Europe must be added. And an increase in U. S. Customs is probable.

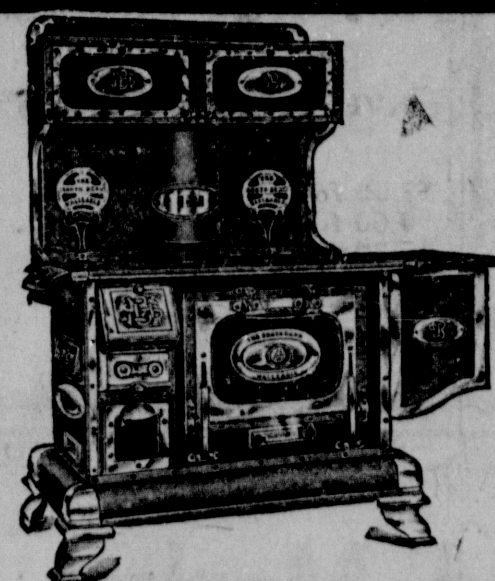

Knowing this we have for months been buying diamonds for cash.

In consequence we possess today a wonderful collection of the finest, absolutely perfect blue white gems.

ENTERTAINED IN HONOR OF MR. AND MRS. McCULLOUGH

People of Riggston church gave a Shower Friday Night for Newly Wedded Pair—High School Activities at Winchester—News Notes.

Winchester, Sept. 28.—The Standard Bearers and the Sunday school of Riggston church entertained at the home of Mrs. Minnie Coultas Friday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Allen McCullough who were recently married. A miscellaneous shower was given for the bride, and after a very pleasant social evening substantial refreshments were served.

Guy and Glenn Overton gave a dance Friday evening in the south side hall for the benefit of the athletic association of the high school. As a result of the football game last Saturday the boys had a depleted treasury and took this method of raising needed funds. The dance resulted in a substantial sum for the association's treasury.

The juniors of the high school gave a banquet Friday evening at the grade building in honor of the freshmen. The room was decorated in the class colors, purple and white, and presented a very attractive appearance. A pleasing program of toasts was carried out and following the banquet some time was spent in a social way.

Mrs. Harry Sears of Bluffs was a visitor in Winchester Friday. Miss Freda Vortman has returned home from Alsey. She has been appointed as teacher in the primary department to take the place of Miss Barbara Owings, who was compelled to give up school work on account of illness.

A box social and entertainment will be given at the Campbell Hollow school on the evening of October 3. A good program is being prepared by County Superintendent Ward, who will be present and assist. Ice cream, sandwiches and nuts will be for sale. The proceeds will be used for the library fund of the school.

Paul Overton of the Lyric has purchased a new screen for the theatre. It is one of the best on the market and is the same type as used in the larger theatres of the country.

New concrete walks have been placed on the south side of the court house, adding a great deal to the appearance of the building and grounds, and providing a great convenience to the public.

MANY INQUIRIES AT RECRUITING STATION

Sergeant Stirling Explains Some Advantages of Service in Regular Army.

There were a number of inquiries at the local recruiting station at the Post office building Friday but none of the visitors signed up for service. Sergeant Stirling however, is confident that a number of prospects will see the good sense in joining the army shortly and thus be under the care and supervision of competent, regular army officers, men who have seen many years of service and who are capable and have the knowledge of taking care of the enlisted men in the way that they should be cared for.

In speaking of the identification of the men engaged in battle, who are wounded or killed, the Sergeant stated that in this regard the government was especially far-sighted.

Every American soldier who goes into the trenches in France will wear suspended from his neck beneath his clothing an aluminum tag, bearing his name, company, and regiment, according to the present plan of the war department. The proposal to tag each man with a number only as is done in foreign armies, is not favored.

A comprehensive card index system will be inaugurated by the war department following passage of the general deficiency appropriation bill supplying the necessary funds. Plans have been practically completed for the creation in the department of a "statistical division," with a foreign branch in Paris.

The demand for men's high grade hats, causes FRANK BYRNS to show KNOX HATS in latest NEW YORK blocks and colors.

STOLEN AUTOMOBILE IS RECOVERED

E. D. Herald Thought His Overland Was in Garage When Machine Was Found Along Roadway Few Miles South of City.

Friday afternoon about 5 o'clock Mrs. Frank Mawson residing southwest of the city telephoned the police that an automobile had been abandoned by some unknown persons near her residence. Mrs. Mawson gave the number of the license and Desk Sergeant Kiloran upon investigation found that the car belonged to E. D. Herald of Edgehill Road.

Sergeant Kiloran telephoned to Mr. Herald who happened to be at home and asked him if he knew where his automobile was. Mr. Herald replied that it was in the garage. He was told to make sure and upon investigation found that the lock on the garage door was broken and the car gone.

Sergeant Kiloran and Patrolman Baker when Mr. Herald reported the car gone took the police car and went by after Mr. Herald and they went after the car. The car, which is an Overland, was found partly turned across the road and the gears locked.

Mr. Herald does not drive the car himself and after some work Patrolman Baker got the gears unlocked and drove the car back to the city. Mrs. Herald was out of the city Friday and the thieves evidently were acquainted with the situation and probably knew of her absence. The police are working on the case and hope to be able to apprehend the thieves today.

PROTEST PAYMENT OF NOTE.
In the probate court recently held of the late William Nunes filed additional objections to the payment of note of $10,000 and interest thereon claimed by John Pires. A number of reasons are stated for the objections filed, among them being that William Nunes did not write and deliver the said note in writing, that the note was given without consideration, that it was obtained by fraud and that certain alterations have been made in the note.

FUNERAL NOTICE

LIBERTY FUND TOTAL RUNS ABOVE $400 MARK

MANY SUBSCRIPTIONS GIVEN TO HELP BUY BOOKS

Money To Furnish Reading Matter For Soldiers and Sailors—Reach One Thousand Dollars—Today Is Last Chance to Subscribe.

Subscriptions to the Library War Service Fund have been made by quite a number of people during the week and up to last night over four hundred dollars had been secured. This is a most worthy cause and should be liberally subscribed to by the people of this community. It may be that your boy will be one of the beneficiaries of this fund, which will be used to supply our soldiers and sailors with reading material. Books and periodicals will be placed at their disposal at the different camps in this country and abroad and in this way much of the homesickness and loneliness of their army and navy life will be done away with.

Today is the last day in which subscriptions to this fund will be accepted and it is the hope of Miss Barrette, public librarian, and all others interested in the work, that liberal responses will be made to this last call. One thousand dollars is the sum which should be raised in this community. Jacksonville and vicinity did not fall in the Red Cross membership campaign, and has not failed in any of these other war causes. It surely will not fail in this, one of the most important of the funds to be raised.

The three recruits for the regular army who left here a few days ago arrived O. K. at Jefferson Barracks, St. Louis. Marcus E. Smith and Ordrian P. Fox passed the physical examination for the engineering corps, but Richard E. Smith failed to pass the test, on account of flat feet.

Mr. Fox in a card received at the Journal company Friday says everything is clean and nice at the barracks, and adds "Always speak a word for the Army Y. M. C. A., as it is the greatest organization in the world, beside the U. S. Army. The men here are all the cream of the country, physically." Smith and Fox will be stationed at Jefferson Barracks, probably a week or ten days yet, before being sent to an engineering unit "somewhere in America."

BANKERS AID IN EFFORT TO INCREASE PRODUCTION

Have Co-operated with Farmer to Obtain More Profitable and Increased Food and Livestock Production—Serve as Connecting Link Between Scientific and Practical Forces.

Atlantic City, N. J., Sept. 28.—How the bankers of the United States have co-operated with the farmer to obtain a more profitable and increased production of food and livestock was related to the American Bankers' association today by Joseph Hirsch of Corpus Christi, Tex., chairman of the Agricultural Commission of the association.

"This campaign for increased food, feed and livestock production, which we have been advocating for five years, has become a vital factor in the successful conduct of the great enterprise of war upon which this nation is launched," said Chairman Hirsch. "Agricultural preparedness is just as necessary as military preparation. We are endeavoring to apply efficiency methods to the business of farming—the greatest business of the country. The purpose of the bankers is to increase our agricultural prosperity and at the same time make the banking business more profitable and infinitely safer by lending direction and financial assistance to the sound farming projects advocated by those efficiency experts, the field forces of the United States department of agriculture and the state colleges of agriculture."

Have Relieved Efforts
"During the past twelve months we have redoubled our efforts toward the employment of additional county agents and no better proof of the wisdom of this policy can be offered than the fact that our government, in its campaign for increased food production, will endeavor to place a county agent in every agricultural county in the United States."

"We have continued to advocate the development of the livestock industry and hundreds of calf, dairy, baby beef, sheep, swine and poultry clubs have been organized by bankers all over the country. Thousands of pure-bred cattle, swine and sheep have been purchased by bankers and have been sold to farmers and to children, members of livestock clubs, at actual cost. These movements are playing an important part in the campaign of the government to increase our meat supply. Illinois bankers have organized more than eighty calf clubs and as a result of their interest, more than 6,000 head of animals have been brought into that state."

"Wisconsin bankers, in conjunction with the state agricultural college have distributed a variety of seed which it is believed will increase the state's wheat yield from an average of twenty bushels an acre to thirty-eight and one-half bushels an acre. Michigan bankers hope to save the farmers of the state some $15,000,000 which is lost annually because of poor seed."

Revolution in South
"The entire south has engaged upon safe-farming campaigns conducted largely under bankers' auspices, which have saved millions of dollars for southern farmers and brought about an agricultural revolution in the land of cotton."

"All over the country a better understanding has been created between bankers and farmers. The Wisconsin and Washington Bankers' associations conducted banker-farmer excursions to their state colleges of agriculture. The California Bankers' association visited the state university farm in a body. As a result California bankers are now turning their attention to the development of the livestock industry in their communities."

"This is the kind of agricultural work by bankers which will bring agricultural prosperity—the bankers are acting as the connecting link between the scientific forces of the colleges and the practical forces of the field."

"I appeal for support in this work which is bringing about a closer relationship and a better understanding between the bankers and their farmer customers—a work which has always been economically sound but which today has become so important a factor in the program for our national defense."

DISCOVERS NEW FORM OF GERMAN PROPAGANDA

Chicago, Sept. 28.—A new form of Germany's many-sided propaganda has been discovered by Harry A. Wheeler, state food administrator. He said that not only has the cunning campaign for the conservation of home food supplies been attacked by agents of the German government spreading reports that these supplies would be confiscated, but the food administrator buttons are being used by employees and sympathizers with Germany's cause to gain entrance to homes in order that antagonism against the government may be aroused and food saving discredited.

In issuing this warning, Mr. Wheeler calls upon every local and district food administrator in his state, as well as patriotic Americans in every home, to report and help run down all such seditious work. By each and every person being on the lookout for such mouth to ear propaganda, it can be quickly stamped out and the guilty dealt with as enemies of the country, it is pointed out. Already from two different sections of the United States have come reports of this campaign against the food administration in order to make serious participation of America in the war impossible.

NOTICE A. H. T. A.
At the regular meeting to be held at the court house Saturday afternoon, September 29 at 1:30 o'clock officers will be elected and delegates selected to the state convention. Reports of officers, etc.

A. C. Reid, President.

Walter Berger of Decatur made a business trip to the city yesterday.

SURVEY OF ILLINOIS FARM LABOR SITUATION

State Food Administrator Wheeler Shows in Preliminary Report That Transient Labor Has Entirely Disappeared From the Farm.

Chicago, Sept. 28.—Farm labor in the corn belt sections of the west is developing into a "war baby," according to a preliminary survey of the farm labor situation in Illinois by Harry A. Wheeler, State Food Administrator. As high as 15 cents a bushel is being asked for husking in certain sections, while less than 7 cents a bushel is rarely mentioned in reports from local food administrators in every county and about 95% of the townships of the state. A day's work in the corn field is usually 50 bushels, and crack huskers often do 90 to 100 bushels and even more it is pointed out. Expert huskers should therefore make around $15 a day in certain sections in Illinois, indicating the farm labor situation that war has been developing for three years, and that the call for the National army has suddenly intensified.

Transient labor has completely disappeared from the farm, Mr. Wheeler's report shows, the mines, the factories and the armies soaking up this surplus that once helped harvest the oats, wheat, hay and corn crops of the state. Retired farmers, boys from the towns and cities and old men have been taking up the slack the past summer. With this patriotic aid, most local food administrators claim that there will be no serious farm labor shortage this year. Next spring, they admit, the situation will be more serious.

JOHN McDONALD IS LONG TIME COUNTY RESIDENT

Has Lived Sixty Years in Vicinity of Hickory Grove School House — Has Held Various Offices of Trust in County.

A few miles northeast of the city, near Hickory Grove school house, is a small piece of land, long frequented but along which live some of the solid citizens of the county, men who have earned a good name by industry, thrift and upright dealing. Just south of the school house, in a pleasant grove, is the home of Mr. Garvin but he was away when the writer called. On north of the school house lives Earl Bourne on a farm owned by James McDonald of this city and then come the homes of Frank Brown and John McDonald. The latter was the only one found at home and with him the reporter had a very pleasant visit and James McDonald soon showed up with a ladder and both were busy gathering some fine fruit.

It can't be said of Mr. McDonald that "a rolling stone gathers no moss" for he has lived on the one place sixty years. His father, James R. McDonald, was born a few miles east of the city on the Petrie farm now owned and occupied by Lloyd Lukeman, and he moved to the farm just east of the one on which his son John lives, but he sold it and moved to the city many years ago and died some time since. John was born a quarter of a mile east of his present home and in that vicinity he has lived all his life. He has gained the reputation of an honest, upright man, has been county commissioner and held other offices of trust and has never been found delinquent. He was married December 22, 1881, to Miss Francis J. Reid, daughter of the late well known Abe Reid, and has an interesting family. Nettie, Mrs. Harry Holley, lives in Jacksonville; Frances, Mrs. Ernest Francis, lives on a farm northwest of the home place; Della, Mrs. Bija Proffitt, lives in Jacksonville; Pearl, Mrs. George Birdsell, is at home as her husband has gone to war; John lives on Franklin street and works for Kellogg Brothers; William is at home.

Mr. McDonald also has five grandchildren. He has given up farming now and rents his land as he doesn't have to work and he is getting along in years. He has enjoyed good health pretty much all the time of his life and is well respected. His uncle who lives east of him has been on the one place 85 years and bids fair to be there some time yet.

PSYCHOLOGY OF PACIFIST ROOSEVELT'S THEME

Analyzes the Conscientious Objector—Praises Work of the Training Camps and Makes Plea for Universal Obligatory Military Service.

Minneapolis, Minn., Sept. 28.—The psychology of the pacifist was the principal theme in Colonel Roosevelt's speech before the Labor Loyalty League here tonight. In his analysis of the conscientious objector he asserted that they ranged from the "parlor pacifist, who represents the rotting out of the virile virtues of the people" to the "rough-neck type, who is perfectly willing to fight but only for himself," and the "traitorous pro-German."

These extreme types, the Colonel declared, go hand in hand, "either actuated by a lazy desire to avoid performance of national obligations, sheer physical timidity, or in the service of the German military machine."

Must Discriminate Sharply.
"There remains," the Colonel continued, "the conscientious objector who really does conscientiously object to war and who is sincere about it. As regards these men we must discriminate sharply between those who put righteousness above peace and those who put peace above righteousness and thereby serve the devil."

"The first attitude is that of great numbers of the society of Friends and the Quakers, but the peace people of the directly opposite type, include the men who object to all participation in any war, however brutal the opponents and however vital triumph may be to us and mankind."

The Colonel concluded his address by praising the work of the military training camps and making a plea for universal obligatory service and declared "we should insist on the Democratic spirit and square deal," and make officers "out of the best fitted of these young men without regard to whether they or their fathers have money or do not have money."

Which Do You Prefer

The Old Way—or—The New Way?

You are familiar with the old way—the low oven way—and know how it feels when you stoop over to have the blood rush to your head, and when you raise up it is with a "kink" in your back and that disagreeable dizzy feeling. Compare this with the new way—the Leonard Hi-Oven Way—no stooping required, all work done in an easy, upright position. Surely you can appreciate what this would be worth to you.

Leonard Hi-Oven Ranges Burn Coal or Wood and may be equipped for Gas also.

Leonard Hi-Oven Ranges

Are Made to Save Work and Worry and Fuel Too

And then, besides the back-saving elevated oven, there are many other convenient features. For instance, there is the glass over door—you can watch your baking without having to open the door. This means better baking, and you get real enjoyment in doing it. Then, too, the ranges are very simple to operate; they heat quickly, with no annoying waits, and they are easy to keep clean and pretty.

The Fuel-Saving Draft

Besides saving work, these ranges save fuel—and fuel saved is money saved. The patented pre-heated draft is a wonderful improvement in range construction. The draft is heated to at least 500 degrees before being admitted through the grates. This draft, together with the secondary hot blast draft over the fire, means a remarkable saving of fuel.

A Leonard Hi-Oven Range is an investment. It pays dividends by the fuel saved, work saved, and added comfort and satisfaction.

was called upon to decide whether or not the championship should be awarded in football this year. It was decided to award the championship as usual.

It was further recommended that each representative present should urge his college to make some form of athletics compulsory for all students. While the conference realized that it could not force such a rule yet it was believed that recommendation from the association would have great weight with the various schools. At the present time Milkin and St. Viators are the only Little Nineteen schools having compulsory military drill.

It was reported that a number of schools would not have football this fall. Among them is Lincoln which has abandoned its football schedule and Southern Illinois Normal which has discontinued all branches of athletics. Hedding while it has done nothing as yet was reported as getting ready to play this fall. Augustan resumes football this fall for the first time in ten years.

Prof. Whisler returned home Friday evening. Coach Harmon remained over in Peoria until today. He expects to investigate tractors with the view of buying one for the Harmon farm which he expects to manage next year.

Facts About The 400th
Anniversary of The Reformation
(By J. G. Kuppler)

The celebration of the quadricentennial of the Reformation, 1917, reveals the fact that the Lutheran church is one of the greatest world forces of today. It is impossible to compute its spiritual strength, but it is reasonable to believe that this is its greatest power. Its numerical strength can be computed and according to reliable statistics the church has reached enormous proportions. The Lutheran church is the first and largest Protestant church in the world. It is found everywhere throughout the whole earth, "from the rising of the sun to the going down thereof." While other religions are, as a rule, confined to one country, language or race, the figures here given prove that the Lutheran church is spread over the whole earth.

Territorially it is established in all parts of every continent. Europe reports over 60,000,000 Lutherans; Germany about 40,000,000; Denmark, 2,630,000; Norway, 2,423,000; Sweden, 5,410,000; Finland, 3,000,000; Poland, 460,000; remaining Russia, 4,300,000; Austria, 430,000; Hungary, 100,000; France, 140,000; Holland, 100,000; British Isles, 382,000; Asia, 412,000; Asiatic Russia, 136,000; India, 234,000; China, 31,000; Africa, 421,000; West Africa, 36,000; South Africa, 240,000; Madagascar, 128,000; Oceania, 244,000; Australia, 177,000; New Zealand, 13,000; Sumatra, 91,630; Nias, 13,000; Borneo, 3,100; South America, 770,000; Brazil, 560,000; Argentina Republic, 155,000; Chile, 140,000; Greenland, 11,896; Nova Scotia, 125,000. The total in the world is 38,102 pastors; 60,853 churches; 76,000,000 baptized members, 15,735 parochial schools, 21,000 deaconesses, annual gifts for heathen missions $4,000,000—(Figures from Levker.)

Why We Celebrate Reformation

For nearly four hundred years has celebrated the Reformation in sermons and prayers and hymns. While most Lutherans are supposed to know that there are abundant reasons for those yearly celebrations, it will do no harm if we state a few of them for general information. Why do we celebrate the Reformation?

1. Because no event in history since the days of the Apostles mean so much to us or to the world as does the Reformation. First, it restored to us the Bible; second, it brushed aside a huge pile of superstitions and traditions and brought again into clear light St. Paul's doctrine of salvation of faith alone. Third, it broke the chains of ecclesiastical tyranny such as was never before known, and restored liberty of conscience; fourth, it brought about a revival not only in religion, but also in morals and in government; fifth, it prepared the way for social and industrial progress, such as has not been witnessed since the world began.

2. Because when we cease to celebrate the Reformation we cease to value the blessings which it bestowed. It would be a sad day for our nation did it forget to celebrate the Declaration of Independence which marks its birthday. It would show that the people were forgetting the priceless boon of liberty which that declaration stands for. So would it be with us, who are heirs of that vast estate of blessings which the Reformation has left us its legacy. It would prove that we had forgotten the priceless worth of our Reformation heritage.

3. Because when we cease to value the blessings which the Reformation bestowed, there is danger that they will be taken from us. God always punishes ingratitude, and the manner in which He does this is to withdraw from men the blessings they do not value. When true religion leaves a church or a nation it is a sure sign that it has lost its value in the eyes of the people and where once the lamp of life was brightly burning there is increasing darkness. When the church begins to love darkness better than light it must find fault with God if He removes the candlestick that once lighted up its altar. And so when we cease to value the blessings of the Reformation, what else can we expect but to lose them at no distant date?

4. In these times especially when worldliness, indifference and skepticism abound, Reformation principles and truth need to be re-stated. Many do not honor the Bible as their fathers did. To them it is no longer "The Book," but only "A Book" among other books. Young people in many homes are wading through trashy newspapers and whole libraries of poisonous literature and seldom take the Bible or any other good books into their hands.

They simply live for pleasure and believe it is enough that they should be "moral" or "respectable." There is need of taking the dust off the Bible in our day, as Luther did. There is need of teaching people what sin and guilt and repentance and faith are. There is need of telling men over again what their fathers did in their day and of recounting the blessings of their labors and sacrifices that is why we celebrate the Reformation.

The name of Lutheran was first applied to the followers of Luther by Eck when he published the bill against Luther. It was used as an expression of disrespect and derision in like manner as the followers of Jesus were first called "Christians" by the Gentiles at Antioch.

Neither Luther nor his followers wanted the church called by that name. It was thrust upon them. The name the reformers themselves wished to adopt was "The Evangelical Church"—the Gospel church. No title could have been more appropriate and expressive.

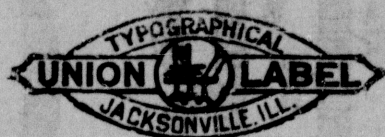

"We call ourselves Lutherans and our churches Lutheran churches not for Luther's sake, nor for the selfish pride of ornamenting ourselves with his name, but because we accept, hold and teach the doctrine he taught as the pure doctrine of Christ. And because we believe that the articles of faith which Luther taught and defended and received them as the pure gospel we are bound to acknowledge

BIG CROP HAS BEARISH EFFECT ON CORN

Prices Close Heavy, 2% to 2% Cents Net Lower — Provisions Have Setback

Chicago, Sept. 28.—Official references to the 1917 corn crop as the greatest ever brought to harvest had a noticeable bearish effect today on corn. Prices closed heavy, 2% to 2% net lower at $1.17 1/2 to $1.17 3/4 December and $1.14 1/2 to $1.15 May. Data finished 50% of the crop up. Provisions showed a setback varying from 2c to 5c.

Lower prices of the day in the corn pit came just before the end of the session. Disfavor which talk of removing the maximum price limit has encountered a good deal to handicap the bulls, and so too, did peace gossip, and the absence of signs that there had been serious seaboard demand together with month end adjustment of trades put strength into September oats. Other options were weak.

Packers selling carried down provisions. Continued scarcity of hogs failed to check sales.

BRADSTREET'S REPORT

BUSINESS GOOD

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—Bradstreet's tomorrow will say:

"Price adjustments temporarily restrict fresh developments in some of the larger lines, but however, reducing the rapid pace of industrial operations or of trade in essential commodities, and in a measure, the selling is still upward, domestic requirements superinducing a moratorium, in fact record volume of business."

"While fresh buying of iron and steel marks time pending clearer views of the effect of the lower prices announced Monday and of those yet to follow, it is recognized that new business is only held in abeyance and in view of the war wants of the allied nations it is far out that ordinary consumers of steel will have to go short of supplies."

PROPOSED BOND ISSUE INFLUENCES MARKET

Stocks Decline From 2 to 4 Points, Rails Being the Weakest Shares.

New York, Sept. 28.—To what extent the government's proposed unlimited bond issue acted as an influence over today's stock market gave rise to much debate. Rails were the weakest shares, high grade issues showing extreme loss of 2 to 4 points. St. Paul made another new minimum at 1 1/2, the preferred over a score of years at 99%. Other rails touched lowest levels of recent years meeting with indifferent support even at marked concessions. Relatively industrial stocks lost less ground than the more seasoned issues.

United States Steel varied between 10 1/2 and 11 1/2, its final price of 10 1/2 showing a net loss of 1 1/2 points.

Other steels including equipments, also metals, shipbuilding and utilities were one to three points lower, with feeble rallies on the usual short covering before the close. Sales amounted to $45,000 shares, international as well as domestic bonds were irregularly lower, the liberty issue, however, selling from 100 1/4 to 100 3/4. Total bond sales (par value) aggregated $6,150,000. United States bonds (old issues) were unchanged on call.

FIGHT FOR YOUR LIFE

Duty Demands
Robust Health

Fight to get it and keep it

Fight—fight day in and day out to prevent being overtaken by illness. Keep wrinkles from marring the cheek and the body from losing its youthful appearance and buoyancy. Fight when ill-health is coming with its pallor and pains, defects and declining powers. Fight to stay its course and drive it off.

But fight intelligently. Don't fight without weapons that can win the day for without the intelligent use of effective weapons the pallor spreads and weakness grows and a seemingly strong man or woman oftentimes becomes a prey to illness after all.

You will not find this class of persons in the hypoferrin ranks. No unhealthy, dull, drabby, droopy persons in that line. It is a hale, hearty, robust aggregation of quick-steppers who view life in a joyous frame of mind and are mentally and physically equal to any emergency. Hypoferrin stands for sound body and sound mind—it is the invigorating tonic of the times—powerful and unsurpassed as a health restorer, vitalizer and health preserver. ## LETTER FROM CORPORAL HUGHES AT CAMP LOGAN

Gives Interesting Account in Southern Training Camp—Men Are All in Fine Condition.

Mrs. J. Hughes of 661 S. Diamond street has received the following letter from her son, Corporal Harry Hughes, with Co. B at Camp Logan, Texas:

Houston, Tex.
Sept. 22, 1917

Dearest Mother: Have been intending to write you for some time with reference to the life the boys in our company are living but it seems up to now I have had no opportunity however will make a try at this time.

At 5:30 a. m. First call is out of bed put on our clothes, wash our faces and hands and are standing at attention for the first formation of the day. Reveille roll call at 5:40 then at 6 a. m. we "fall in" for breakfast and with exercises we have gotten we all have healthy appetites which are satisfied at the big dining room with 20 feet of the 1st sergeants tent. Each company have their own dining room and cooks governed by their commanding officers.

Since Capt. Owen left us, Lieut. Hale has been our commanding officer and altho he exacts our duties of us he has the interest of every member of his company at heart and shows us every day. There are some members of the company recently enlisted that cannot understand why we drill as much as we do but they will soon realize it is only preparing us to meet that big dutchman with a sharp bayonet and lots of pep.

But getting back to our daily program at 6:55 a. m. drill call is sounded and 7 a. m. assembly and that is when we "fall in" and go to the drill field which is close by, and drill until 10:55 a. m., when we come back and at 11:15 we assemble in our dining room where Lieut. Dickson holds what is called company school until 11:45 and by the time we get our hands and faces washed dinner is ready and, believe me, we are ready for it.

There is then a rest until 2 p. m. for everybody but the officers and non-commissioned officers who go to school at 1 p. m. to get the "new dope" for the next day. The school is held by Lieut. Hale or Col. Wood as all of the non-commissioned officers of the regiment attend this school. Then at 2 p. m. we assemble again and go to the drill field and drill until recall which is 5 p. m.

By the time we get back to the company street and get our daily bath it is time to assemble again for retreat—just after the flag is furled at sundown we have our supper and for the fellow who has done his "bit" that day he is ready for bed but our 1st sergeant Gary issues passes for those who feel equal to the trip and care to go up town, which allows you to stay until 11:30 p. m. but taking into consideration the time at which we arise the occasions are few where any of us stay as long as we can. On Saturday our Lieut.-Colonel inspects the companies for dirty rifles, clothing and general appearance but I am proud to say, I am member of a company which does not need anyone to make us keep clean. All of the boys are looking forward to the day when we come marching home with the Kaiser's scalp for we know that will be a glorious time.

No work on Sunday. We "fall in" for church at 3:30 p. m. conducted by the Chaplain of the 5th regiment, Major Fawcett. We have a big Y. M. C. A. where we do all letter-writing, also about two nights out of each week we have a show in the "Y".

The weather was not as hot as I expected to find it, in fact we only have two in the hospital and neither case is serious. Had better stop for this time, will tell you more next time.

Lots of love,
Your Boy,
Harry.

ARENZVILLE MAN WAS AT VICKSBURG

AUGUST HANSMEIER RELATES SOME CIVIL WAR HISTORY.

Tho Less Than Twenty Years of Age He Took Active Part in Siege and Subsequent Management of the City—Interesting Reminiscences.

An interested and interesting visitor in the city yesterday was August Hansmeier of Arenzville. The gentleman wore on his coat a badge which indicated that he had been attending the 49th reunion of his regiment, the 114th, in the civil war, the old boys' meeting at the state fair in Springfield. Mr. Hansmeier says time is sadly thinning the ranks of the veterans and not many answered the call this year. Col. J. W. Judy of Tallula was first in command and he resigned after a time and Col. King took command and was with the regiment till the end of its term of service.

Mr. Hansmeier has many interesting reminiscences, to tell of the stirring days when he wore the blue. Tho less than twenty years of age he bore well his part and came home to enjoy good health and he is not yet what would be called an aged man being erect and vigorous and able to outdo many a man several years his junior.

Looks Toward Vicksburg. At present he is anticipating with no small degree of pleasure the coming trip to Vicksburg when the grand reunion is to take place bringing tens of thousands together from all parts of the land. As has already been stated, the veterans of the union and Confederate armies have free subsistence while there and the legislature of Illinois has appropriated money to pay the transportation of all Illinois veterans who took part in the siege, but so many may want to go that it is doubtful if there will be enough for all.

Mr. Hansmeier had some interesting stories to tell and while he was not talking for publication a Journal reporter managed to get quite a bit from him and would have secured more but a fine Buick car drew up in front of the place where they were talking and Mr. Hansmeier was called away. He said in brief:

Vicksburg was one of the strongholds of the Confederacy and Gen. Grant felt it must be taken so that supplies could be sent down the river to our troops below and it was a strategic position. The effort to send a boat to run the blockade was a failure for the Johnnies sunk it without trouble. What fun we had the night they sent the dummy down. It was an old flat boat rigged with imitation stacks and furnaces, which were barrels over brick and when it was right dark the fires were lighted and it was towed into the stream. How the Johnnies did go for it spending a great lot of good ammunition firing at it. They were so eager they dismounted several guns in their hasty firing and I imagine there was some pretty sulphurous language used by the Confederates when they discovered the cheat.

An Old Cartoon. Harper's Weekly had, soon after, a big cartoon picturing Uncle Sam, the manufacturer of bogus goods. Beside him lay a lot of "prime pine hams," "oak nutmegs," "sanded sugar" and "watered molasses" and in his hands a toy imitation ship and the old man was saying he guessed he would turn his attention to that branch of work hereafter.

Finally Gen. Grant decided to leave the city high and dry and began the cut off canal and we dug like good fellows for a good while and the pick and shovel became more common to us than our rifles. It was pretty hard work but Gen. Grant wasn't the man to stop at obstacles. With plows, scrapers, shovels, picks and all manner of tools we worked away and finally the first boat went thru and I helped run her and it was a proud moment and a fortunate one for the union cause.

We managed to get supplies thru and drew tighter and tighter the halter around the necks of the enemy till the glorious Fourth of July, 1863 came when we proudly marched into the city. It was hard for the Johnnies for they were a brave set of men and had done their level best but they couldn't stand starvation. They ate mule meat, hid in cellars and endured all sorts of privations. Newspapers were printed on wall paper and all sorts of substitutes for ordinary materials were used but it was of no use; Gen. Grant had his hand at their throats and they had to surrender.

My regiment was left in charge of the city for six months and we had all sorts of adventures. Our duties were both civil and military; we were police and provost guards too and we had our hands full. Occasionally there would be an unconstructed Johnny who wouldn't give in but would persist in taking secess and had to be put behind the bars.

Some Initiations. We had a building we called the Irving block and in that was a room some thirty feet square, windows barred, and into that we put people who would be sent to calaboose in a place like this. It was surely a great place and some would be there a good while and every new comer had to be initiated. They would make him do all sorts of things: stand on one foot and make a speech, recite verses out of the primer, sing funny songs, crow hop and frog leap about the room and carry some one on his back. If the new comer took it good naturedly and made no resistance it wouldn't go so hard with him but if he lost his temper the inmates would have all manner of fun with him.

One day we caught a man and wife fighting or rather the man was beating his wife and we arrested him. Of course the woman turned on us and we had it up and down. She begged us to let her husband go; declared they were only in fun,

The Four Walled Copper-Lined Malleable Range

No Other Range is Clad with Real Copper That Never Rusts

Count the Walls—1, 2, 3, 4,
One of Pure Copper

First is the outer wall of Alleghany iron, second the pure copper wall, third the thick asbestos wall, fourth the warpageless gray iron wall that clamps the asbestos to place and never burns out.

Why Not One Thick Wall?

Because such walls waste too much heat by radiation. Asbestos does not radiate and waste the heat, but it does "sweat" as it cools off.

For long years no one understood why malleable ranges rusted out from the inside. No one thought of asbestos sweating—but it does, and to separate the outer wall (body of range) from the sweaty asbestos was necessary.

Separate with something that will never rust. "Copper is the thing," said the originator of the Copper-Clad Range. So between the asbestos and outer wall he put a sheet of pure copper—and not one Copper-Clad Range has ever rusted out.

This Copper Wall saves the price of a new range every 10 years, and while it costs much more to make, it is well worth the money. The Copper-Clad Range is conceded the best range made anywhere at any price.

in spite of her black eyes, promised all sorts of things if we would listen to her. When she saw coaxing wouldn't do she changed her tune and for a while I never heard such a torrent of abuse from human lips. I can't repeat all she said but it was truly scalding till finally we had to arrest her and put them both in the bastle.

I didn't inquire but I guess they didn't initiate her in the big room but probably her husband received a double dose to answer for them both.

Quelling Trouble.

One night a sergeant and four privates, of whom I was one, heard a great racket as we passed by a saloon and entering saw a river captain with a few drinks aboard mounted on the counter with a revolver holding the bar tender and all in the saloon at bay while he was delivering a speech mingled with plenty of profanity and all else. Of course we arrested him and started along toward the lockup when we passed another place that needed attention so the sergeant told me to take the prisoner to the Irving house while he and the rest of the squad looked after the other trouble. I was a mere youth less than twenty, while my prisoner was a stalwart man much larger and older but he offered no resistance.

At last he said to me: "Young man; I beg of you don't take me to the Irving block." "That is my orders." "But I don't want to go and have the disgrace." "I am sorry, but see no way out of it." "See here; let me jump into this cellar way; you fire your gun into the air and report my escape."

"See here; here is a roll of $85.00 and my watch; they are yours if you will."

That made me mad and I told him plainly I wasn't for sale and he would have to go to the lockup. I did feel sorry for him but there was no help for it and into the Irving block he went. I never knew a man to beg harder. He said his boat was due to leave at twelve; he would lose his job; his family would be disgraced and what not. At the prison they took all his valuables till next morning when he had his trial and then all except his fine and costs was returned to him and he left a sadder and I hope, a wiser man.

I don't support I shall see anything familiar about the city but I am eager to get down there anyway and look over the old battle and siege ground and meet all who are left.

ILLINOIS PEOPLE ASKED TO USE LESS SUGAR

In Statement Issued By State Food Administrator After Conference with Herbert Hoover—Purpose is to Aid Our Main Ally.

Chicago, Sept. 28.—Illinois people are asked to reduce their use of sugar and candy by one-third in a statement issued today by Harry A. Wheeler, state food administrator, after his return from a conference with Herbert Hoover, national food administrator.

"The French government has asked to be allowed to export 100,000 tons of sugar from the United States in the next month and probably more at a later period," said Mr. Wheeler, in explaining the necessity for reduced consumption in America. "Our own supply is sufficient for normal up to next January, when the new crop from the West Indies will be available. We normally consume about 90 pounds of sugar a person each year, while the French are on a ration of about 21 pounds a person a year. The Italian and English consumption is but slightly greater. For two months the French will be entirely without sugar unless we can reduce its use enough to spare them some."

"We do not ask the people to cut down the use of sugar in canning and preserving fruits, but in the use of candy and sugar on the table we can easily spare enough to help our ally over a short period. Mr. Hoover as national food administrator is not asking seizure of sugar supplies or even compulsory rationing. He is depending upon the patriotic and fair dealing of the American people to show the world that a democracy can do things willingly that an autocracy cannot accomplish dictator methods."
